

PROJECT MANAGEMENT FUNDAMENTALS (ER-PMT8) (VCT or ILT) (8 hours, 8 PDUs)

Successful projects require good leadership and systematic analysis, planning and execution and conclusion.

In this course you will acquire the fundamental knowledge to manage projects in a multi-project organization.

This course is customized for Ericsson.

AFTER THE COURSE YOU WILL

Have knowledge of:

- ❖ Management of projects in a multi-project Organization
- ❖ The complete project life cycle; Project Analysis, Planning, Execution and closing
- ❖ The Project Management knowledge areas
- ❖ The Ericsson Project Management model

TRAINING METHOD

We apply a training method based on "learning by doing". This means optimizing your learning by combining the trainer's input with your own experience and active participation.

TARGET GROUP

- ❖ Project Members and Team leaders
- ❖ Project Managers
- ❖ Line Managers
- ❖ Anyone with interest in learning the fundamentals of project management

PREREQUISITES

- ❖ Some experience of project work is recommended but not required.

SUBJECTS

- ❖ Project definition and why projects
- ❖ Projects in a multi-project organization and key roles
- ❖ The Project Management knowledge areas
- ❖ Project Stakeholder and Communications Management
- ❖ The Project life cycle, Milestones and decision points (Tollgates)
- ❖ Project Analysis, Requirements and Scope
- ❖ Project planning:
- ❖ Risk Analysis – Risk Management
- ❖ Agile Methods – brief
- ❖ Project Execution Phase – Monitoring and Control
- ❖ Project Conclusion
- ❖ The Ericsson Project Management model
- ❖ Case Study and Exercises

All participants will receive the GPMM 3.0 Manual as an ebook.

GPMM = Greenlight Project Management Model.